

Alex and Jodi Bio:

Alex and Jodi have been in full-time ministry since 2006. For twelve years in East Asia, they planted churches, provided strategic leadership, and helped lead teams across multiple cities and regions. They married in 2009 and continued to serve as missionaries.

From 2018-2024 they became Elim Fellowship's Global Ministries Directors, where they launched missionaries worldwide, built systems, on-ramps, internships, missions care events, and strategic trainings to help missionaries in many aspects.

They currently serve The Gateway Project, which Alex founded in 2021. Alex serves as the Director and Strategic Visionary and Jodi is the Stateside Director. The Gateway Project, a new collaborative missions organization, is dedicated to forming and planting teams in the most strategic cities in unreached areas.

They both are Bible School graduates and hold bachelor's degrees. They travel and minister throughout the world believing for God's heart and mission to be experienced in a fresh way. They have two amazing boys, Elliott and Kylo, and are currently based out of Rush, NY as a family.
