

Jodi Seidler Bio:

Jodi Seidler has a passion to see people fall more in love with Jesus and impact their world for Him. She is not only a speaker but a minister as well. Her passion as she communicates leads people to an encounter with Jesus. Jodi served with Campus Target for 9 years with her time split between living in Asia and living in America. She is a graduate of Elim Bible Institute & College and Chesapeake Bible College & Seminary.

Jodi and her husband Alex met at EBI&C and got married in 2009. They have been involved in evangelism, discipleship and church planting. She is ordained through Hopewell Network and has a heart to see non-believers believe, disciples disciple and leaders lead. Jodi has spoken at leadership, women's, young adult, & youth conferences & events.

She currently serves as the Stateside Director for The Gateway Project, Missions Director for Forward Movement, Founder and Co-Director of The Called Collective, and Founder and Director of Jodi Renee Creative Co.
